Investigation of the New Orleans Sugar Frauds.

Puneral Obsequies of Amos Kendall.

> Special to the Louisville Express. WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.

The celebrated McGarrahan case came up in the Supreme Court of the District yesterday against the Interior Department, which, through ex-Secretary Browning, had refused to obey the order of the court, and it now comes before the court on a motion to quash the judgment and vacate the writ which the Secretary refused to obey.

This case arises from McGarrahan applying for a writ of mandamus on the pending in Congress.

A Young Man Killed.

St. Louis, Nov. 14. A young man, named Thomas Stretch. was kelled this afternoon under painful flicting, one being that a parcel of boys were playing ball on a vacant lot, at the corner of Tenth and Carr streets, when James Stewart, a well-known builder, came out of his house, adjoining, and or dered them off, at the same time throwing a brick at them, hitting Stretch on or mear the shoulder, inflicting a wound from new postoffice, in City Hall Park, was laid which he died in a few minutes Another version is that the boys were in Stewart's stable, and that he threw a brick at the stable to frighten them away, and when they jumped down from the hay loft, Stretch either broke his neck, or died from concussion of the brain. Stewart bas the reputation of being a kind-hearted Christian man, and the occurrence has caused much solicitude among his friends. He does not deny throwing the brick, but says it did not hit the boy.

This is not the only instance in which an officer of the British service has made a lucky hit in New Zealand. Some years ago a marvelous stroke of good lack befell ne who needed it much more than the Duke. A poor lieutenant in a marching regiment quartered in New Zealand had ontrived to save £37 out of his pay, and hearing very favorable accounts of the prospects of the town of Otago, he wroteto a sagacious friend there, inclosing an order for the whole of the sum mentioned. and telling him that he was determined to invest his hardly-earned little savings in real estate in that place. The friend most judiciously bought with £35 a corner allotment, and wrote back incloing the necessary papers and the £2 bai-
